

A Guide to the Bodhisattva Way of Life

入菩薩行

2019
Dharma
Course

Administrative Information

Course Synopsis:

A Guide to the Bodhisattva Way of Life is a Mahayana Buddhist text written in the 8th century by Indian master Shantideva(寂天菩薩). It is a great work of Buddhist literature that has been translated into various languages and is well-known to many students of Buddhism.

It shows the way to transcend the limitations of selfishness and realize the boundless compassion of the Bodhisattva. The central concept is bodhicitta, or the mind (chitta 心) that aspires and practices for the enlightenment (bodhi 菩提) of all beings. As all happiness comes from wishing others well, and all suffering from caring only for ourselves. Bodhicitta, Shantideva proclaims, is the best medicine for what ails the world.

In these 6 sessions, we will focus on Chapter 1: The Benefits of Bodhicitta.

- Lecturer : Venerable Fa Xun
Dates : 23/2, 2/3, 9/3, 16/3, 23/3 & 30/3/2019 (Saturday)
Time : 2.30 pm – 4.00 pm
Fees : $30 (Member); $40 (Non-Member), only accept cash payment.
*Minimum 10 participants are required to start a class.

For enquiry and registration, please visit Admin Office at Level 4.

